Dear John,

You would have heard from me sooner had I not, as I told you, asked to refer your question to Sir Charles Goring. I found he was out of town; but thought I wrote immediately. Please let me receive his answer.

In the mean time, here is my view of the report

I should think the matter in the grant of Arms true; but you agree to cause the Patent Copies of the right of Henry VIII. to be searched for the gift of the lands would probably be recorded - If found.

you would obtain the Christian name of the Port's ancestor.

You will see in a few weeks what I have done for Chaucer, by examining the Records of his time.

Yours very truly,

L. Harris Nicolas.

Kindly Morning,

I have just received a dearly note from Sir Charles Evans in which he says he will write me on the Shakespeare point in a day or two. L.R.
